APPLICATION INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED WITH PAGE 1:

1. The story of your life including how you see the development of your personality, spirituality and faith as well as some assessment of your educational strengths and limitations and your current health. This is an autobiographical statement that gives the selection committee an account of your life from your family of origin to the present day.
2. An example of a conversation in which you have engaged and in which on reflection you felt you had provided pastoral care to the other person.
3. Three goals you might set yourself to be achieved by the end of the program.
4. Provide the author and title of one book in the areas of Pastoral Care, Spirituality, Biblical Studies or Theology that you have read, valued and enjoyed in the past two years.
5. A recent photograph.
6. The names and telephone contact for at least two referees.
7. A copy of your current "Working with Children Check".
